ALGO. YO CREO QUE
ME TOMARE OTRO WHISKEY".

Mr. Quentin, nació en Octubre de 1930, en Houston, Texas, como el último de nueve hijos de padres italianos, que emigraron a Estados Unidos de América a fines del siglo XIX. A los 16 años se mudó con la familia a New Orleans y empezó a "trabajar" para la familia Lo Bruno, estadounidenses de origen italiana.

Quentin estaba dejando su familia de adopción para construir su propia familia, su equipo y su portero que les acordaba mucho a él. Todo esto no les gustó a los miembros de los Lo Bruno's, así empezaron los años de "trouble in the city". En Agosto de 1967 lo dejó todo, se fue en Florencia abriendo su propio Quentin's Bar N.2 para evitar más enfrentamientos con J. Lo Bruno.

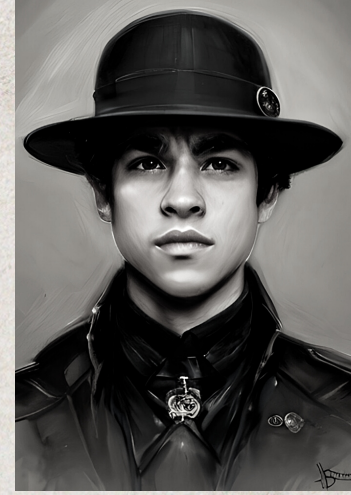

Por su impetuosidad, Quentin fue contratado en el club nocturno de la familia en la Saint Philip St como portero y cantinero. Detrás de su ser tan duro, se escondía su don de gentes. Quentin se convirtió en la atracción del negocio, cuidándolo como si fuera suyo y por cierto sabía como mantener a raya los clientes en caso de que se volvieran molestos lo que le ganó el apodo de "break boy".

Una vez terminado en la puerta se ponía a la barra marchando los bartenders. Ahí es donde se soltaba sintiéndose un artista, ofreciendo sus tragos a los clientes con sus evoluciones donde dejaba fluir su inspiración más natural. Los '50 lo vieron protagonista de varios conflictos con la "familia adoptiva" así que en la década de 1960 se dio a conocer en la ciudad con la inauguración de su Quentin's Bar N.1. en contra de todos.

Su inspiración y "savoir faire" fueron recompensados con la presencia de las autoridades de la ciudad el día de la inauguración. Jenny "Capra" Lo Bruno, boss de la familia, visiblemente contrariado al nuevo business de su hijastro.

"TROUBLE IN THE CITY"

Hasta que se daba cuenta de ser buscado. Así por Europa, Latinoamérica, Asia, fueron los viajes que caracterizaron su recorrido, adoptando técnicas aprendidas en las mejores ciudades del planeta. Lo Bruno's inspirados a Quentin crearon una marca de bar & food que los hizo protagonistas en USA, y considerándolo como recompensa, dejaron de buscar a Quentin y su mayor éxito fue un coctel llamado "Trouble in the City". Break boy solo después de años pudo quitarse este apodo, ahí fue donde triunfó en la vida como en el negocio, donde se destacó finalmente con el nombre de "the mag". Gracias a él, en buenas partes de Europa se creó toda la teatralidad y espectacularidad de los bartenders.

Mr. Quentin, 1944

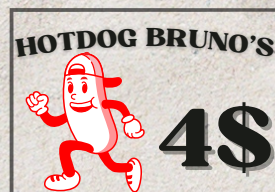

ENG - THEORIGINS
Mr. Quentin was born in October 1930, in Houston, Texas, as the last of nine children of Italian parents, who emigrated to the United States of America at the end of the 19th century. At the age of 16, he moved the family to New Orleans and began "working" for the Lo Bruno family, Italian Americans. Because of his impetuousness, Quentin was hired at the family's nightclub on Saint Philip St as a bouncer and bartender. Behind his being so tough, he hid his people skills. Quentin became the attraction of the business, taking care of it as if it were his own and certainly knew how to keep customers at bay in case they became annoying which earned him the nickname "break boy". Once finished at the door he would go to the bar marching the bartenders. That is where he let go feeling like an artist, offering his drinks to clients with his evolutions where he let his most natural inspiration flow from him. The '50s saw him the protagonist of several conflicts with the "adoptive family" so in the 1960s he became known in the city with the inauguration of his Quentin's Bar N.1. against everyone. His inspiration and "savoir faire" were rewarded with the presence of the city authorities on the day of the inauguration, except for Jenny "Capra" Lo Bruno, boss of the family, visibly upset with the new business of his stepson. Quentin was leaving his foster family to build his own family, his team and his janitor that was very much like him. The members of Lo Bruno's did not like all this, and thus began the years of "trouble in the city". In August 1967 he left everything, he went to Florence opening his own Quentin's Bar N.2 to avoid further confrontations with J. Lo Bruno. Until he realized he was wanted... Thus, through Europe, Latin America, Asia, were the trips that characterized his journey, adopting techniques learned in the best cities on the planet. Lo Bruno's inspired by Quentin created a bar & food brand that made them protagonists in the USA, and considering it as a reward, they stopped looking for Quentin and his greatest success was a cocktail called "Trouble in the City". Break boy was only able to take off this nickname after years, that's where he succeeded in life as well as in business, where he finally stood out with the name "the mag". Thanks to him, in good parts of Europe all the theatricality and spectacularity of bartenders was created. The intention of Quentin's American Bar is to value the work, style and influences of the Quentin-inspired brand.
